

South Side

By Lynne Alessio

To celebrate South High's 10th anniversary, the "Sword and Shield" staff hosted an assembly today. Pat Paulson, a regular on the "Smother Brothers' Comedy Hour," was the center of the celebration ceremonies.

A short skit, presented by the newspaper staff, relived many of South's memories. The fads, styles, slang, and popular singers were represented during this display of South's history. The annual One-Act Play Festival will be held this Friday. It features four plays, two comedies, two dramas. In the past, these plays have been directed by students, but teachers have replaced them for this year's festival.

"THE VALIANT" stars Keith Snook, Sandy Covey, Robert Walpole, and Chris

Williams, and is directed by one-act play contest on Feb. 16, and the Long Beach Festival on March 23.

Donald Craig directed the third act from Steinbeck's "Of Mice and Men." It stars Phil Sarazen, Danny Monschelm, Debbie Strubar, and John Elliott.

Gerry Levanas and Debbie Jacobs are the stars of "When Men are Scarce," directed by Mrs. Genevieve Rosin.

"The Conquest of Mount Everest," directed by Mrs. Judith Weigle, stars Debbie Scott, Joel Schnieder, and Chris Samson.

Ticket prices are 75 cents and $1. The first performance begins at 8 p.m.

THESE plays will be judged and the one in first place will represent South at El Camino

Army Pvt. Terry W. Rogers, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Rogers of 22429 S. Harvard, was assigned as a rifleman in Company B, 1st Battalion of the 3rd Infantry Division's 30th Infantry near Schweinfurt, Germany
